1 Agreement for Educational Services

Anaheim University is not a public institution. When this document is signed by the student and approved by Anaheim University, it legally obligates both Anaheim University and the student.

2 Program Description: MFA in Digital Filmmaking

Title of Program: Master of Fine Arts degree program in Digital Filmmaking (MFA)

Description of Program: Through the MFA in Digital Filmmaking program, students acquire the knowledge, skills, and ethics needed to produce media content in an ever-shifting landscape of production, distribution and exhibition. The curriculum reflects the variety of production practices involved in today's complex entertainment and artistic realms – from film, video and gaming to festivals, YouTube and other online platforms, and to innovating into areas yet unknown. Through Anaheim University's rich learning experiences and state of the art approach, students, both those new to digital filmmaking and those looking to expand their filmmaking horizons, will gain a greater appreciation for the history, theory and range of cinematic practices in global contexts, along with a full background in the most recent technologies of pre-production, production and post-production. Students will have the opportunity to experience aspects of Hollywood production practices through video interviews and real-time interactions with experts in various components of studio filmmaking and to interact with those involved in other aspects of content production and distribution.

Seminars from those professionally involved in these areas will be complemented by tours of facilities and classroom-style lectures. Attachment B to Student Enrollment Agreement: Program Cancellation, Withdrawal, and Refund Rights

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL A student has the right to cancel an enrollment agreement by email, FAX, or postal service through the first day of the course, or the seventh day after signing the enrollment agreement, whichever is later (the "Cancellation Period"), and obtain a full refund of all monies paid, less the non-refundable STRF fee, which is currently zero dollars ($0.00) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of institutional charges and applies only to California residents, the non-refundable application fee of $75 (for graduate programs) or $50 (for undergraduate programs), and the non-refundable $100 registration fee

Students canceling after the Cancellation Period will receive a refund of tuition as specified in the applicable Table below.

Note: The written notice of cancellation may be given by email, fax, or postal service (in which case, the effective date begins the day the letter is postmarked, if the envelope is properly addressed and the postage is prepaid). The "Official Notice of Withdrawal" form can be downloaded from the University website under How to Apply>Applications & Forms>Program Withdrawal Form

For the purposes of determining the student's obligation for the time attended, the student will be considered to have withdrawn from the program when any of the following occurs, unless the Dean or Program Director determines a different course of action:

- The student notifies Student Services, an administrative staff or a faculty member of the withdrawal.
- The school terminates the student's enrollment.
- The student fails to attend classes for a three-week period. In this case, the date of withdrawal will be the date of attendance.
- The student fails to submit three consecutive lessons or fails to submit a completed lesson required for home study or correspondence within 60 days of its due date.
- The student has not responded to communication in any form from the University for four months.

Students who have been withdrawn from their program for any of the above reasons may be required to submit a new application (and all applicable fees) if they wish to continue. Students who withdraw after the Cancellation Period and who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance for which they were charged are entitled to a pro rata refund of all non-federal student financial aid program monies paid for institutional charges.

Refunds will be calculated using the following formula:

$$\text{Refund Amount} = \text{Total Amount Paid} - [(\text{Total Institutional Charges} + \text{Total Number of Days in the Enrollment Period}) \times \text{Number of Days Attended (or Scheduled to Attend) Prior to Withdrawal}]$$

This calculation determines the portion of institutional charges owed by the student. Any amount paid beyond that obligation will be refunded to the student. If the amount paid is less than the amount owed, the student will be responsible for the balance due. No refund is due once the student has completed more than 60 percent of the enrollment period.

Sample Refund Calculation

Example Scenario:

- Total institutional charge (tuition + applicable fees, excluding non-refundable fees): $2,200
- Non-refundable fees: $75 application fee + $100 registration fee = $175 total non-refundable
- Total course length: 9 weeks (63 days)
- Daily Charge = $2,200 / 63 = $34.92
- Student withdraws on Day 8 of the course
- Amount owed = Daily Charge x Number of days enrolled = $34.92 x 8 = $279.36
- Amount of Refund = $2,200 - ($279.36 + $175) = $1,745.64

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the monies not paid from the federal financial aid funds. All monies due the student will be refunded within 30 days of the notice of cancellation.

If the student has been approved for a monthly payment plan, Anaheim University will calculate the total amount of tuition and fees owed to the University based on the number of courses taken and compare this amount with the total amount the student has paid up to the date of their withdrawal. Any amount paid over the total amount of tuition and fees will be refunded to the student. If there is a balance due, the student will be responsible for the remaining amount.

Refund Policy for the MFA Residential Session

For the 7-day, in-person residential session in the MFA program, students who withdraw after enrollment but before completing 60% or less of the total session are entitled to a pro rata refund of tuition paid for the residential portion.

Refunds are calculated as follows:

Refund Amount = Total Tuition Paid – [(Total Tuition ÷ Total Number of Days Scheduled) × Number of Days Attended Prior to Withdrawal]

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds

If any portion of the student's tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan, the refund up to the total amount of the loan, will be sent to the lender or to the agency that guaranteed the loan, if any. Any remaining amount of the refund will first be used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received. Any remaining amount will then be paid to the student. If there is a balance due, the student will be responsible in proportion to the amount of the benefits received. Any remaining amount will be paid to the student.

All monies due the student will be refunded within 30 days of the notice of cancellation.

Any questions a student may have regarding this enrollment agreement that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE), 1747 N. Market Blvd, Ste 225, Sacramento, CA 95834. Phone: (888) 370-7589. FAX: (916) 263-1897. www.bppe.ca.gov.
